

Next Generation Nepal

ABOUT NGN

Next Generation Nepal, a nonprofit founded in 2006 by Conor Grennan, is dedicated to reconnecting trafficked children with their families.

PROGRAMS

Reconnection

Through NGN's reconnection program, families of rescued children are found and communications rebuilt with information and regular visits. To date, NGN has located and reconnected kids with over 400 families.

Reunification

NGN's reunification program returns trafficked children to their families after conditions are assessed for safety and stability. We have returned over 40 children to their families so far.

Prevention

The prevention program targets the main causes of trafficking by collaborating with local and international organizations to reinforce education, healthcare and sanitation in efforts to strengthen communities in rural Nepal.

Event & Fundraising Tips

"Children and their families in Nepal are better off with NGN."

—Joseph Aguetant, Terre des Hommes Foundation

There are many ways that you can help NGN help the lost children of Nepal. Consider these event and fundraising tips—they're easy, inexpensive and enormously beneficial to NGN and our mission to reconnect trafficked children with their families.

Events

- Invite your friends to your home, your school or any place else where you can discuss NGN and its mission. Invite them through Facebook or Twitter, and refer them to our website, our Facebook page or NGN founder Conor Grennan's book, "Little Princes."
- Consider showing the informative film on Nepali children trafficked into the orphanage system, "Paper Orphans." Contact us for more information on screening this important documentary.
- Carefully plan what you want to discuss, and use information from other parts of our toolkit. Don't hesitate to contact us for more information.
- Be sure to follow up with your participants afterwards. Remind your guests that any donations they choose to make to NGN are tax deductible.

Fundraising

- In addition to hosting events, you can easily encourage your friends and family to contribute to our cause. Offer to make your friends dinner in exchange for a donation in the amount they would have spent to go out. Do the same by showing a movie at your place in exchange for the price of a ticket. Or, if you're musically or theatrically inclined, a performance. Be creative, and have fun.
- Point potential donors to our website or Facebook page, so they can make online contributions quickly.
- You and the donors you help bring to NGN will receive tax recognition letters within a week or two of your donation.
